Home- College Agreement

We believe students, their parents and the college need to work together so that all students can succeed. In order for this to be achieved we all have rights and responsibilities which we must agree to:

We agree to provide:

- a safe and orderly working environment which observes and upholds the Conisborough Code
- a wide range of subjects, following the National Curriculum
- an education based on high expectations
- work which is suitable for her/his age and ability
- a high standard of teaching and support – set out in the Teaching and Learning Charter
- regular homework with a published timetable
- regular marking of work
- a written report and parents' evenings
- the use of textbooks, equipment and library facilities
