

13th June 2023

Dear Parents and Carers,

I write to inform you that Dr Harpham has resigned from his post as Headteacher at Conisborough College, with immediate effect.

In the interim, John Cavadino and Kate Mahar, Deputy Headteachers, will share leading the school for the remainder of the summer term as Interim Co-Headteachers, supported closely by the Local Authority. Both John and Kate have worked at the school for a number of years and I know many of you have worked with them closely.

I want to reassure you that the Senior Leadership Team are working closely together to ensure consistency for your children, and there will be no changes to teaching and learning in the short term at Conisborough College.

I also need to let you know that the NEU have informed us that they will be taking strike action on Thursday 15 June. The school will be open for Year 11 and Resource Base students only.

I look forward to being able to share more news with you as soon as we can and thank you for your continued support.
